- Once candidates are registered for examination, examination fees are non-refundable and non-transferable even if the candidate(s) does not turn up for examination.

Absence for examination :

- According to the syllabus, if a candidate is absent for examination due to medical reason and is unable to take examination within the same exam period, he/she may apply for a re-entry permit* by submitting the original medical certificate to TCM Examinations Pte. Ltd. within 14 days from the exam date. Trinity College London will then issue a 50% re-entry permit after verification
*This re-entry permit can be used for the next exam within 12 months of the original exam date upon payment of 50% of the examination fees current at the date of entering for the next exam session.
If this re-entry permit is used towards entry for an examination at a higher level, any difference in fees is payable.
- If the registered candidate is absent for examination, Teachers/Schools will not be allowed to put in another candidate as a replacement.

Late Entries :

- Please take note that entries will not be accepted if received less than 14 days before the exam period commences. Anyone who wishes to make a late entry must contact the local exam office directly. Entries and payment which are received after the closing date of the registration period will be subjected to the following surcharges :
 - Between the closing date and 21 days before the exam period commences
Late Charges : Plus 50% of the published examination fees.
 - Between 20 days and 14 days before the exam period commences
Late Charges : Plus 100% of the published examination fees.

Amendment Charges :

- A fee is payable for any amendments. Please check with the local exam office for the fee.

Certificate Replacement :

- A fee is payable for each certificate replacement. Please check with the local exam office for the fee. Candidate must email a copy of the examination result for application of certificate replacement. The local exam office can only proceed with the request upon receiving the payment and a copy of the examination result from the candidate.
